

SHORT-BIOGRAPHY

MICHAEL BERND BAYER

Michael has spent 25 years as an international senior business leader with Fortune 500 service providers and technology companies, including Philips, T-Mobile, Cisco Systems, Avaya and NCR.

His considerable business experience includes leading businesses of all sizes, from 10 employees to more than 4,000, with broad end-to-end portfolios (SW/HW/Services). He wants to share his experiences by supporting boards, owners, PE/VCs in creating a better future for their company, venture and/or Startup.

At the beginning of 2018, Michael established his own business -MBB-Advisors AG- in Switzerland, which is focused on advisory, non-exec and consulting engagements.

He is German living in Switzerland and is also active in the start-up scene, especially as a member of Swiss-ICT-Investment-Club, advisory board member of the London Technology Club and investor, with scale-up and exit experience.

As a father of three young adult daughters, he is used to handle challenges outside of business, as well.
